

SUMMARY OF COVER

OVERVIEW

This document is designed to provide you with an overview of your isure policy, including the key facts about the cover—without going into the full terms and conditions. For full information you should read the policy wording and, if necessary, seek advice from an insurance adviser.

Product: isure Combined Liability Policy
Type of Insurance: Professional Indemnity/ Public & Products Liability/ Directors & Officers Liability
Insurer: isure Pty Ltd on behalf of Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's

The isure policy is designed for professional service firms (whether you are an individual contractor or a small business) based in Australia. It will cover you for claims which arise from work you undertake anywhere in the world, other than in the United States of America and Canada.

IS THE ISURE POLICY SUITABLE FOR YOUR BUSINESS?

The isure policy is aimed at a wide range of professional services firms but due to certain coverage restrictions is not appropriate for all. In particular, firms undertaking the following should NOT purchase an isure policy:

- Legal advice
- Social work
- Investment/financial advice
- Medical advice or medical services
- Civil / Structural/ Fire Engineering
- Cladding/façade work
- Manual work [other than where incidental]
- Product manufacture or supply
- Building Inspection / Certification
- Property valuation
- Pre-purchase / Pest Inspection
- Real Estate Sales / Property Management

The isure policy is also NOT suitable for firms which are domiciled outside of Australia, or which receive more than 25% of their income from outside of Australia.

Depending on your profession, there may be specific coverage which you are required to maintain in order to meet the minimum standards of your regulator or governing body, or the professional association to which you belong. If you are in any doubt as to whether the isure policy is appropriate, you should seek advice from an insurance adviser or from such body or association.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE POLICY

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract, or both.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

In the event of a claim or loss, you should take note of the required procedures – such as prompt notice to us of anything that may give rise to a claim or loss, set out in the General Claims Conditions section of your policy.

You must not admit liability in connection with, or make any settlement offer with respect to, and claim without our prior consent.

As with any insurance, you have an obligation to take reasonable steps to mitigate any loss.
